DISCOVER VOLUNTEERS DELIVER 55 TEACHER CARE PACKAGES TO THE COLUMBUS SPEECH & HEARING CENTER

COLUMBUS, OH. Sept. 29, 2009 – Christmas came early for Columbus Speech & Hearing Center’s speech pathologists, occupational therapists and audiologists this year. This morning volunteers from Discover brought care packages filled with books, games and learning materials based off a wish list submitted earlier in the month.

The Center is grateful for the continued support of Discover and is looking forward to using the generous gifts during therapy sessions and hearing evaluations.

The packages were assembled last week by Discover volunteers at their New Albany facility as part of Discover’s 2nd Annual Discover Cares Month. Over 40 percent of the Company’s U.S. workforce participates in various community service projects across the country during the month of September.

About the Center - Columbus Speech & Hearing Center, founded in 1923, is a non-profit United Way organization serving more than 10,000 people annually. Services include hearing evaluations, hearing aids, speech therapy for children and adults, occupational therapy and treatment, and vocational services for people who are Hard-of-Hearing, Deaf and Deaf-Blind through the Comprehensive Program for the Deaf and Ohio Deaf-Blind Outreach Program. Generous charitable giving from the community help offset the cost of the Center’s valued services for low-income families.
