

Fun With Friends

Small language groups are offered for children ages 4-7 who experience challenges interacting with friends.

Groups meet one time per week for one hour with a speech-language pathologist and 4-5 children.

The groups focus on improving interaction skills with peers through a variety of problem solving and group games and activities.

Parents are able to observe and are offered suggestions for home carryover.

Columbus Speech & Hearing Center
510 E. North Broadway Columbus, OH 43214

For more information, call 614.263.5151